2020 Distance Learning Rebate Application Form

Introduction

The purpose of this program is to provide a rebate to Fulton residents incurring out of pocket costs for NEW educational expenses associated with distance learning during COVID-19 that were not necessary before the pandemic. The Fulton Neighborhood Association (FNA) will provide a rebate for the first $250 in eligible expenses; one rebate per household.

Rebate criteria

All households in Fulton neighborhood with children attending K-12 public school in a distance learning or hybrid model qualify to receive a rebate. Multiple applications may be submitted, but the total of rebates for any household is limited to $250, one rebate per household. The fund pool is $20,000. Rebates will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis as funds are available. FNA requires all participants to provide receipts to document expenses and reserves the right to verify enrollment in a K-12 public school.

Eligible expenses:

- Computer hardware/accessories
- Software
- Supervision/focus of learning time
- Commercial space rental
- Newly installed internet access, hot spot, access point, etc.
- Furniture: desk/chair

NOT eligible:

- Food/beverages
- Entertainment
- Capital improvements, construction or renovation costs, purchase of property
- Furniture (other than noted above)
- Equipment (other than noted above)
- Childcare
- Space rental within a home
- Ongoing monthly utility costs (e.g. internet)
- Previously purchased computer hardware or software
- General supplies, books, etc. that would have been needed regardless of the pandemic

Rebate process

Residents submit a completed reimbursement form (online or by mail) along with original receipts dated Sept. 1, 2020 or after. Digital images of receipts are accepted. FNA verifies compliance and issues a rebate check. FNA retains all submitted forms and attachments. If a rebate is denied, a resident may bring an appeal before FNA. Application must be received by Jan. 31, 2021.
